Jadryev Awarded Certified Residential Specialist Designation
by The Council of Residential Specialists

San Francisco – February 28, 2007 -- Roland Jadryev, a San Francisco Realtor® and sales associate at McGuire Real Estate, has been awarded the prestigious Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) Designation by the Council of Residential Specialists, the largest not-for-profit affiliate of the National Association of Realtors.

Realtors who receive the CRS Designation have completed advanced courses and demonstrated professional expertise in the field of residential real estate. Fewer than 4 percent of Realtors nationwide have earned the credential. CRS Designees subscribe to the strict Realtor code of ethics, have access to the latest technology and are specialists in helping clients maximize profits and minimize costs when buying or selling a home.

Jadryev is a member of the American Institute of Architects, Alliance Française, Jewish Community Center and Fédération Internationale des Administrateurs de Biens Conseils et Agents Immobiliers (FIABCI), the International Real Estate Federation, and is a lifetime honorary member of Istituto Italiano di Cultura.

In 2006 Jadryev received the Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) that is held by fewer than 1500 real estate agents worldwide. A graduate of the Graduate Real Estate Institute (GRI), he also holds the Transnational Referral certification of the National Association of Realtors.
